

CT24 TTX

14 MAR 24

Background

Table Top Exercises (TTX) in Exercise Cope Tiger 2024 (CT24) will be conducted as follow ;

- On 12 March 2024 at Wing 2 Lopburi, Thailand for UAV Operation Group.
- 14 - 15 March 2024 at Wing 1 Korat, Thailand for Air Operation and Intelligence Group.
- On 17 March 2024 at Chandy Range, Thailand for GBAD Group.
- Participating services include Royal Thai Air Force (RTAF), Royal Thai Army (RTA), Royal Thai Navy (RTN), United States Air Force (USAF) and Republic of Singapore Air Force (RSAF).

Aims

- TTX aims to set common understanding, familiarize with authorized exercise guide and enhance coordination among participating services
- It typically serves as testing and validation of the current Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) for CT24.
- In addition, the TTX provides participants a chance to exercise operational planning problems as well.
- The TTX's target audiences are all personnel in Combined Exercise Control Group (CECG) as well as contingency management personnel.
- The scope of the TTX includes topical briefs and discussion on various Field Training Exercise (FTX) execution, contingency / emergency handling to prepare the CECG staff/planners for the upcoming FTX.

Objectives

- To improve combat readiness of participating forces in combined and joint interoperability
- To strengthen understanding and enhance coordination between sub-units in Combined Exercise Control Group (CECG)
- To validate operating procedures and planning norms for operations
- To promote understanding of the operating environment for smooth conduct of FTX
- To enhance relationships among the participating services
